

Beef Wellington

A dish for celebrations and special moments. Tender beef wrapped in golden pastry, enriched with foie gras, creamy spinach and mushroom duxelles. Elegant enough to impress your guests, generous enough to satisfy them.

Ingredients

- 1 kg beef fillet, centre-cut, well-trimmed
- 500 g chestnut mushrooms, very finely chopped
- 200 g baby spinach
- 150 g foie gras (or smooth duck liver parfait)
- 2 shallots, finely minced
- 2 cloves garlic, minced
- 4 slices Parma ham
- 500 g all-butter puff pastry
- 2 egg yolks beaten with 50 ml double cream (egg wash)
- 1 tbsp Dijon mustard
- 2 tbsp olive oil
- Salt, black pepper, nutmeg

Method

1. Season the beef generously. Sear in very hot oil for 2 minutes per side until deep brown all over. Brush immediately with Dijon mustard. Chill 30 minutes.
2. Make the duxelles: cook mushrooms, shallot and garlic in butter over medium heat until all moisture has evaporated — about 20 minutes. Season and cool.
3. Wilt spinach in a pan, squeeze out all water, chop finely, season with salt and nutmeg.
4. Lay Parma ham on cling film, overlapping. Spread duxelles over it, then the spinach, then dot with foie gras.
5. Place the chilled beef at one end and roll tightly in the ham layer using the cling film. Twist ends and chill 30 minutes.
6. Roll out puff pastry. Unwrap the beef roll and place on pastry. Roll to encase completely, sealing edges with egg wash.
7. Brush all over with egg wash and score lightly. Chill 15 minutes.
8. Bake at 220°C for 25–30 minutes for medium-rare (internal temp 52°C). Rest 10 minutes before slicing.
