

Indian Red Bean Pot

A journey through spices and slow cooking. Tender red beans, sweet tomatoes and layers of mild, spicy and Madras curries create a comforting dish full of warmth, colour and character. Simple ingredients, extraordinary flavours.

Ingredients

- 500 g red kidney beans, soaked overnight and rinsed (or 2 x 400 g tins, drained)
- 400 g tinned chopped tomatoes
- 2 medium onions, finely chopped
- 4 cloves garlic, minced
- 1 tbsp fresh ginger, grated
- 1 tbsp mild curry powder
- 1 tsp Madras curry powder
- 1 tsp hot curry powder
- 1 tsp ground cumin
- 1 tsp ground coriander
- 1/2 tsp turmeric
- 400 ml coconut milk
- 2 tbsp vegetable oil
- Fresh coriander and basmati rice to serve
- Salt and black pepper

Method

1. If using dried beans: boil in unsalted water for 10 minutes, then simmer 45–60 minutes until tender. Drain and set aside.
2. Heat oil in a large heavy pot. Cook onions over medium heat for 12 minutes until golden.
3. Add garlic and ginger. Cook 2 minutes.
4. Add all three curry powders, cumin, coriander and turmeric. Stir constantly for 1 minute to toast the spices.
5. Add tomatoes. Stir well and cook for 5 minutes until the sauce thickens and the oil separates.
6. Add the beans and coconut milk. Stir to combine. Season with salt and pepper.
7. Simmer uncovered on low heat for 25–35 minutes, stirring occasionally, until thick and fragrant.
8. Adjust seasoning. Serve with basmati rice and fresh coriander.
