

The Best Tiramisu in the World

At least according to my friends. Passed down through an Italian love story and undefeated through years of friendly cooking competitions, this tiramisu is rich, light, and dangerously addictive. Try it once — and you may never look for another recipe again.

Ingredients

- 500 g mascarpone, at room temperature
- 6 egg yolks
- 120 g caster sugar
- 300 ml strong espresso, cooled
- 3 tbsp dark rum (or Marsala)
- 250 g Savoiardi (ladyfinger biscuits)
- Unsweetened cocoa powder, for dusting

Method

1. Whisk egg yolks and sugar together in a large bowl until pale, thick and creamy — about 5 minutes.
2. Add the mascarpone and fold gently until smooth and fully combined. Do not overwork.
3. Mix the cooled espresso with the rum in a shallow bowl.
4. Dip each Savoiardo briefly (1–2 seconds per side) into the espresso. They should be moist but not falling apart.
5. Lay a layer of dipped biscuits in a deep dish. Cover with half the mascarpone cream.
6. Add a second layer of dipped biscuits, then the remaining cream.
7. Smooth the top. Cover and refrigerate for a minimum of 6 hours — overnight is better.
8. Dust generously with unsweetened cocoa powder just before serving.
