

Roasted Bone Marrow on Toast

Arguably the most satisfying thing you can eat in under 30 minutes. Elemental. Rich. Best eaten standing up with a glass of something cold.

Ingredients

- 4 beef marrow bones, cut crosswise (~8 cm sections)
- 4 thick slices of good sourdough
- Small handful of flat-leaf parsley, roughly chopped
- 1 tbsp capers, drained and roughly chopped
- 1 small shallot, very finely diced
- Juice of half a lemon
- Good flaky sea salt
- Olive oil

Method

1. Preheat oven to 230°C. Stand the bones upright on a baking tray.
2. Roast for 15–20 minutes until the marrow is soft, starting to bubble and pull away from the bone.
3. While the bones roast, mix parsley, capers, shallot and lemon juice with a little olive oil. Season.
4. Toast the sourdough until deeply golden.
5. Scoop the marrow straight onto the toast. Add a generous pinch of flaky salt.
6. Top with the parsley-caper salad and eat immediately.
